RACIAL RECONCILIATION BEGINS BY TELLING THE TRUTH

CBS Sunday Morning Spotlights ETIC's Work

In case you missed it, CBS Sunday Morning featured a segment yesterday that lifted up the work of the Emmett Till Interpretive Center commemorating the story and legacy of Emmett Till. Correspondent Jim Axelrod spoke with Rev. Willie Williams, Chair for ETIC's Board of Directors, about the silence in the Delta concerning the tragedy. Axelrod also spoke with Wright Thompson about his new book, The Barn, and Gloria Dickerson about We2Gether Creating Change's efforts to educate youth about Emmett's story.

We're thankful to see our work reach a large audience. If you are new to our organization, please explore our website, including our annual impact report, which highlights our accomplishments in 2024.

GIVING TUESDAY

Tuesday, Dec. 3 Is Giving Tuesday

Tomorrow is Giving Tuesday, a global movement to center charitable giving.

Our annual impact report shows what we were able to do with support from people across the globe. Your generosity makes a difference, and we are grateful for your support in continuing this work.

Thank you so much for doing your part to honor and remember the stories of Emmett Till and Mamie Till-Mobley.
